LIGHTNING TORE OFF SHOES. everal Places Struck and People Shocked

During a Storm on Long Island. Oyster Bay, L. I., Aug. 12.—There was a severe windstorm in this village last evening. It was in line with the house of Law-yer Townsend Scudder and damaged it a lttle. Trees were blown down and several small fences demolished.

The storm was accompanied by terrific rain, and all the villages along the Sound caught it. Roslyn, Port Washington, Great Neck, Thomaston, Glenwood and Sands Point were among the places visited. At Lived in Different Localities, but and tere mud scows from their moorings Glenwood the wind capsized several boats Fifteen trees on the lawn of Dr. Herbert Newtown at Glenwood were uprooted

Newtown at Glenwood were uprooted.

At Thomaston the roof of the house of N. A. Knox was struck by lightning and partly wrecked. Mrs. Knox says she saw what she thought to be a bail of fire come down the chimney into the room. The roof was set on fire, but the rain extinguished it.

Two barns at Port Washington belonging to Albert G. McDonald and John H. Burtis were struck by lightning and damaged. The lightning entered the house of John Tyson, at Port Washington, and created much excitement. One of Mrs. Tyson's shoes was torn from her foot and she was burned about the hip and left shoulder. Her daughter also had a shoe torn from her foot and was stunned. No serious damage was reported in any of the town the storn visited.

The corner stone of the church was laid by Bishop Francis Asbury. The village was then known as Hall's Mills, but the name was changed in 1796 to Asbury, in honor of the venerable Bishop. Bishop Asbury was the first paster of the church in the village shich bears his name. The history of the church was reviewed by General James T, Russing, of Trenton.
